Attention All Employees In New York State Who Are Registered Voters

As a registered voter, you may take off up to three (3) hours, without loss of pay, to allow you time to vote.

You may take time off at the beginning or end of your working shift, as your employer may designate, unless otherwise mutually agreed.

You must notify your employer not less than two (2) working days (November 1, 2019) before the day of the election (Tuesday, November 5, 2019) that you will take time off to vote.
